

The English-speaking singing World

Watch the music videos, guess the artist's nationality and answer the respective questions.
Greyed-out songs are optional.

Track	Title	Nationality
1	Knoxville Girl – Willburn Brothers (⚠ graphic violence/disturbing)	usa
What is the relation of the story to Knoxville, and what might be the intended message? Domestic violence Country music
2	Bring the Noize – M.I.A.	Great Britan
Find symbols that represent different minority groups of the country and explain them. minorities in Britain
3	Sisters – The Halluci Nation	South amerika/Kanada
Find symbols that represent a distinct minority group of the country and explain them. Dances and symbols from inigienes people in Canada
4	This is a Rebel Song – Sinnead O'Connor	Irish
Explain why this is a rebel and not a love song, as it may appear at first sight.
5	Down South – Jeremy Loops	South Africa
Pay attention to people and places and describe them.

6	Beds are Burning – Midnight Oil	Austria
“The time has come!” For What? Pay attention to the lyrics and explain the line. Australia Landscape time to give the land back
7	Something Light – Falz (lyrics – you’ll need them!)	Nigerian
Copy examples for the dialect and accent the artists are using from the lyrics.
8	Welcome to Jamrock – Damian Marley (lyrics)	Jamaica
How or what is Jamrock? And what do you know about the singer’s country?
9	Ari Ari – Bloodywood	India
a) Is Indian metal METAL enough for you? 🙌 Metalli-YEAH! ☐ System of a NOPE! ☐ b) How might the song concern India and its history? What’s the “belly of the beast”?
10	Royals – Lorde	New Zealand
Where does Lorde give away her New Zealanderness – linguistically or in terms of content?
11
Choose a song that shows the diversity of the English-speaking world and explain why.		